Also on tap this weekend...

Contact the park for additional programming details and times.

Animals of Lewis and Clark

Join CRSP Interpreter Don Winter as he takes a closer look at some of the more interesting creatures discovered by Lewis and Clark during their time in the Dakotas.

Seaman the Wonderdog

Seaman, Captain Meriwether Lewis' dog, was the only animal to complete the entire trip. He is only mentioned occasionally in the journals, yet he played a vital role in this great search for a northwest river passage. Cross Ranch Interpreter Chip Cartwright will share with you the exploits of this remarkable four-footed adventurer who floated, padded and swam his way into storytelling history.

York – Manservant, Slave or Freeman

York, Captain William Clark's black manservant, journeyed with the Corps of Discovery from St Louis via North Dakota to the Pacific Coast and return. Little is known of his life and exploits. Cross Ranch Interpreter Chip Cartwright will share what is known as well as the myths and stories about this first black man to cross this continent north of Mexico.

Lewis and Clark: The Sergeants

Join CRSP Interpreter Chip Cartwright for a presentation on the four sergeants that bound the corps together. Who they were, where they were from, what role they played, and what happened to them after the expedition.

Voyager Hike

Join a dazed and confused French river rat as he hikes and talks of a time long past.

Traditional Tales

Storytelling has long been a favored way to pass the time and share accumulated wisdom. Join CRSP interpreters as they share some of their favorite tales.
